

Presbytery of West Virginia's Leadership Development Coordinating Team Presents:

Biblical Stories and Storytelling

with

Tracy Radosevic

Saturday, September 8, 2018

9:30 am - 4:30 pm

Village Chapel Presbyterian Church, Charleston, WV

Course Description:

Human beings are hard-wired for storytelling; it's often how we communicate and it's definitely how we understand the world. Most importantly, it's an extremely effective way to preach and teach as stories are what's easiest for most people to remember. So, if you're looking for practical tools for creating an impactful ministry of not just formation but transformation, join us as we explore the following:

- 1) Making the Connection Between God's Stories and Our Stories
- 2) The Ins and Outs of Storytelling
- 3) Curriculum: It's Only a Bible Away!

Tracy Radosevic is an internationally-acclaimed biblical storyteller, educator, and retreat facilitator. Tracy has served the church in a variety of ways. She has a Master of Arts in Storytelling and a Doctor of Ministry focusing on Spirituality for Life Together. She is a member of the National Storytelling Network and the Network of Biblical Storytellers (NBS) and the Dean of the Academy for Biblical Storytellers. A resident of Baltimore, MD, she enjoys volunteering with Habitat for Humanity, photography, watching movies, scrapbooking, playing her accordion, rollerblading, trips to the ocean, hanging out with her friends, and going barefoot.

This course is intended for anyone who shares the biblical story in preaching and teaching, especially CREs, ALPs, Christian Educators, Pastors, Sunday School Teachers, Logos Teachers, and Youth Leaders.

Registration deadline: Monday, August 27. Payment is due with registration.

Cost: $50 for the first person from a church; $25 for each additional person from the same church, but no more than $100 for a church under 100 members or $150 for a church over 100 members.
