

Barbara Chalfant
Associate for Mission

missions@wvpresbytery.org

Barbara Chalfant takes care of several areas: older adults, peacemaking, social justice, hunger action and disaster preparation and response. She is often available to preach, lead workshops, teach, and support congregations who are venturing into ministry in those areas. She can also assist you in applying for grants and considering how your congregation might engage in service and mission ministry in your community.