Mark's primary role is to manage a safe, quality retreat center for the Presbytery. There are many retreat opportunities from April-November, and you can expect excellent hospitality from him and his wife, Cheryl, at Bluestone. Mark is available to assist with worship, music, and anything you can imagine during a retreat.

He is also available to visit your church to talk about Bluestone (including for mid-week events or session meetings), do pulpit supply, or assist with worship (mostly January-March). Please contact him for availability.
