Early registration, with a deadline of Thursday, August 13, will help the Planning Team assess whether a workshop has sufficient numbers registered to be held; workshops may be cancelled due to low or no early registrations. The absolutely final registration date is Wednesday, August 26, which will enable the Planning Team to get Zoom log-in information to each participant.

If you registered for this event earlier when it was scheduled for August, you do not have to register again, though you may if you've changed your mind on workshops. However, three workshops have been cancelled: Kenyan Visitors, PCUSA Curriculum, and Beyond the Local Food Pantry. If you registered for these, you may register anew, or you will be assigned your second choice workshop.
