

Chris Alfred

Financial Administrator/Treasurer

treasurer@wvpresbytery.org

Chris is the chief financial officer of the Presbytery. He also serves as treasurer for Bluestone Camp and Retreat. He is responsible for all of the Presbytery and Bluestone funds, overseeing the management of the Presbytery's investments, and, as staff support to the Stewardship Committee, assists in the committee's work of developing, implementing and reviewing the Presbytery budget. As treasurer, he serves as the Presbytery's financial liaison with the Synod, General Assembly, Board of Pensions, and insurance providers.

It is also an important part of Chris's job to be a resource to treasurers of the Presbytery's churches. He is treasurer of his church, First Presbyterian of Parkersburg, and has more than 7 years of experience in managing church finances. He is happy to answer questions from or consult with church treasurers about church treasury best practices. He is available to come visit and meet with treasurers and sessions to review and discuss the operation of the church treasury functions.
