

PRESBYTERIAN EDUCATION PROGRAM SKILLS (PEPS) SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Presbyterian Education Program Skills (PEPS) scholarships are intended to assist church professionals and lay leaders participate in leadership training and certification events through continuing education events; and to assist churches in carrying out leadership training. Ordinarily, PEPS funds will be allocated to cover no more than 1/2 of the total cost for those who receive little or no continuing education allowance and no more than 1/5 of the total cost for those who receive an allowance greater or equal to the presbytery's recommendation allowance for certified educators. Congregations are encouraged to supplement the total cost as well. Ministers of Word and Sacrament are encouraged to apply for assistance from the Ministry Committee.

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____ Email _____

Church _____ Position _____

Continuing Education allowance/budget from the church you serve? _____

I am/We are requesting funds for:

Name of event _____

Date(s) of event _____

Is this your first time attending this event? _____

Have you received PEPS funds in the past? _____ What years? _____

(Preference will be given to those attending an event for the first time and those who have not received PEPS funds in the past.)

The estimated cost of this event will be:

_____ registration

_____ travel

_____ lodging

_____ materials for participants

_____ other, please identify

_____ TOTAL

On the back of this page, briefly describe how this event will assist in improving your effectiveness as a church leader (for individuals) or how this event will provide training for your leaders (for churches).

November 2023

Completed applications should be sent to: Presbytery of West Virginia, P.O. Box 11720, Charleston, WV 25339. Requests must be submitted, in advance of the event, by May 1 or October 1 to be considered by the Nurture Committee.