"BE STILL, AND KNOW THAT I AM GOD"

A Retreat on the Psalms

with Tyler Mayfield

St. John XIII Pastoral Center,
Charleston

Monday, February 17-Tuesday, February 18, 2025

Focus: The psalms are read and sung in our churches. This retreat will introduce the various types of Psalms — laments, praise hymns, thanksgiving, wisdom — and consider their theological resonances with today's world. How might we preach and teach ancient Israel's hymnbook to speak to our current lives today? Join us as we pray, study, and sing the psalms of our faith.

Leader: Tyler Mayfield is a biblical scholar, teacher, and administrator at Louisville Seminary, where he teaches courses in biblical theology, ethical readings of Scripture, and prophetic literature. He leads a triennial travel seminar to Israel and Palestine to explore the ancient biblical sites as well as contemporary Judaism, Islam, and Christianity. As the Director of the Grawemeyer Award in Religion, he coordinates a three committee, year-long selection process to award a $100,000 prize for the best new idea in religion. He is the author of five books including a Lenten study of the book of Exodus.

The cost per person is as follows:

- $120/person for overnight (all single rooms, unless you are sharing with a spouse).
- Additional attendees from the same church are $90/person

Commuter rate is $90 (no overnight accommodation); if you are commuting, note that you will want to plan to be present Monday 1-4, pm and 7-8:30 pm and Tuesday, 9 am-noon.)

The registration deadline is Friday, February 7, 2025. To register, go to www.wvpresbytery.org to complete an online form and pay by credit card, or return the registration form on the next page with payment to Presbytery of WV ECCA Retreat, c/o Susan Sharp Campbell, 683 Dwyer Lane, Lewisburg, WV 24901.
